

NICOLA RUSCIANO

Nicola Rusciano is a Business Analyst at Mar.Te. S.c.ar.l. He graduated with honors from University of Naples Federico II with a master's degree in Economics and a research thesis in collaboration with the faculties of economics of Barcelona and Zaragoza, on the development of the State Entrepreneur in Italy during the Fascism and on his shareholdings in Spanish companies. He then continued his studies with a Post Graduate Master Program in International Management, Shipping and Logistics at the IPE Business School gaining knowledge in market analysis and maritime economy. In addition, he consolidated the knowledge gained through a project work in Milan at Venice Shipping and Logistics (VSL) during which he dealt with the analysis of the Shipping Equity Index and the evaluation of investment opportunities in the second-hand dry bulk vessels market.